About V.V. Sangha

V.V. Sangha was founded in Bellary following the 5th All India Veerashaiva Mahasabha in December 1909. Under the guidance of Sri H.H. Hanagal Kumarswamygalu and Sri H.H. Jagadguru Siddalinga Shivacharya Swamiji, it was established in 1916 as 'Madras Veerasaiva Vidyavardhaka Sangha'. After Bellary merged with Mysore State in 1933, it became Veerashaiva Vidyavardhaka Sangha'. Initially, it provided free hostel facilities for Veerashaiva community boys, later expanding its educational mission.

Key Contributions:

The Sangha has focussed on several key areas:
Promotion of Kannada: Established the first Kannada medium school in Bellary in 1924.
Higher Education: Opened Veerasaiva College in 1945, fulfilling the region's need for higher education.
Women's Education: Established Allum Sumangalamma College for women in 1969 and a dedicated hostel.
Rural Education: Expanded to rural areas, setting up multiple colleges and schools.
Technical Education: Founded Vijayanagar Engineering College in 1980, later renamed RYMEC. Also established Proudhadevaraya Institute of Technology and several other technical institutions.
Management Studies: Opened Vijayanagar Institute of Management, later renamed AKIMS.
Postgraduate Education: Introduced M.Sc, M.A, M.Com, M.Ed, and MBA courses in various institutions, with plans for research programs.

V.V. Sangha now runs 48 educational institutions from primary to postgraduate levels and Hostels , continuously adopting to modern educational needs. Under the leadership of Dr. Kanekal Mahantesh (President), Sri Janekunte Basavaraj (Vice-President), Dr. Arvind Patel (Secretary), Sri Yalpi Meti Pampanagouda (Joint Secretary), Sri Byluvaddigeri Yerriswamy (Treasurer) and other dedicated 25 MC members, the Sangha remains committed to quality education and community service. Achieved a centennial milestone and is progressing with sustained growth and a dedication to outstanding education.

Future goals

1.New PG Courses – Introduce interdisciplinary and job-oriented PG programs like Data Science, Nanotechnology, and Materials Science.
2.Autonomous Status – Work towards academic independence, better NAAC rankings, and research-driven growth.
3.Research & Innovation – Encourage faculty and students to engage in advanced research, patents, and industry collaborations.
4.Infrastructure & Digitalization – Upgrade labs, classrooms, and e-learning facilities, along with sustainable campus initiatives.
